DEDICATION

To our parents, who have, with unwearing patience and unchanging tenderness, been our guardians and our guides, we dedicate this annual.

Your influence and wise directions have led us to our present achievements. You have inspired us to contribute to the happiness of others by word and deed.

Through your sacrifices and your never-failing confidence, we have gained great ambition and proudly say, "We are not only giving praise, but love that will live throughout every day."

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

I plan to maintain a keen interest in the class of 1961 and hope that you will become the good citizens that you have shown promise of becoming. Hold to the high ideals that you have held here and your path will be less difficult. Best of luck to you.

Sincerely,
Harry A. Newman

SENIOR SNAPSHOTS

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

J. A. Midkiff leaves his love for good hillbilly music to Elmo Chaney.

Carlene Vaughn leaves those things she expects to miss after graduation to Nancy Wright and Lena Agee.

LaVonne White leaves to Donna Harris her nice personality and ability to make others have a good time.

Harold Griffith leaves his ability to lock people in closets to Maynard Wood.

Betty Lou Weaver leaves her memories of Woolwine High to Betty Jo Roberson feeling that she will treasure them as much as she.

Lucy Willard leaves her great admiration of cute boys to Margaret Foley.

O'Bain Hylton leaves his job of managing the basketball team to Jackie Rorrer and Jimmie Rorrer.

Janet Wright leaves her talented voice to Jeannie Thomas knowing it will be of great help to her when cheerleading.

Donnie Worley leaves his love for basketball to James Harris and Kenneth Conner.

John Jamison leaves his ability to get along without studying to Ralph and Edward Pilson.

Lucille Bryant leaves her giggles to Barbara Rorrer and warns her not to use them at the wrong time.

Swanson Pendleton leaves his "shortness" to Ray Foley in hopes that he grows up faster.

Linda DeHart leaves her mixed up ways to anyone who would like to figure them out.

Clarence Foley leaves his old worn out typewriter to Melvin Scott and Davis McAlexander and hopes it will type better for them than it did for him.

Doris Hylton leaves to Judy Harris her thrill for basketball and her ability to foul out of the games and hopes she does not use the latter.

Gary Griffith leaves his ability to get along with everyone to Bernice Rorrer.

Pauline Morrison leaves her quiet ways to Etta Setliff and Eunice Rorrer telling them that this is a sure way to keep out of trouble.

Faye Pendleton leaves her neat appearance and attractiveness to Wanda Pilson.

Larry Baliles leaves his ability of winning money to Roger Pendleton--I mean losing money on Presidential Elections.

Kaye Pendleton leaves her friendly smile and talent in art to Fern Belcher.

Dillard Hylton leaves his love for baseball to Stuart Baliles and Paul Thomas.

Margaret Tuggle leaves to Mary Fern Griffith her wonderful ability to raise the score at every ball game.

Linda and Donnie

THE SENIORS OF 1961

It is now 1971. Only ten years ago we were twenty-three of the most outstanding and cheerful graduates of Woolwine High School. It seems that the time has really flown for the past ten years, but we haven't forgotten our cheerful and friendly classmates. Although, some of them are rather scattered about. We have finally made plans to wander back to dear Woolwine High.

As we leave Washington, D. C., where we are now employed at the U. S. Capital as two of the most outstanding secretaries in Washington, we find that Harold Griffith and his wife are touring the B-63 to Hawaii on their honeymoon where they plan to Visit Larry Baliles, a great army sergeant.

After having flown from Washington, we stop at Richmond and meet Margaret Tuggle, the wife of Leon Harris. Having an enjoyable talk with her, we find that Lucy Willard has completed an eight year term in the W. A. F. and Carlene Vaughn is married to someone unknown to us and is living in New York.

Getting ready to leave, we meet Faye and Kaye Pendleton. They seem to be really enjoying life and still look exactly alike.

We now land at the Woolwine Airforce Base where we are very happy to meet Swanson Pendleton serving as manager. As we wander down one of the back streets of Woolwine, we are amazed to find a new college where Betty Weaver and Doris Hylton are head teachers. Stopping by the Woolwine Printing Company, we see LaVonne White and her husband working as general managers. She is still as friendly as ever and happy to see us. We pick up the Woolwine Events and are amazed at the headlines--"Dillard Hylton has made one of the most outstanding basketball coaches in California".

We have finally reached Woolwine High School and are really amazed to find Janet Wright as a music teacher. We hardly recognized the school since Miss Thomas has retired as "Head of Teachers" but the bell is still ringing clearly and we remember the good times we as students had in study hall. We have visited here for the day and have eaten in the new cafeteria with Joyce Wade, the cook. She sees that everyone is fed well.

We say good-by to Woolwine High and travel to Bassett where Linda Dehart patiently labors as an understanding nurse under the direction of John Jamison, M. D. There we visit a patient, O'Bain Hylton, having a sore toe from kicking a football. He tells us about Lucille Bryant's marriage to G. W. Thomas and her home in Floyd.

We are about to leave when suddenly we meet Donnie Worley, an employee in the Bassett Industrial office. He tells us about Gary Griffith, a well-performed cowboy, working on a ranch in Texas.

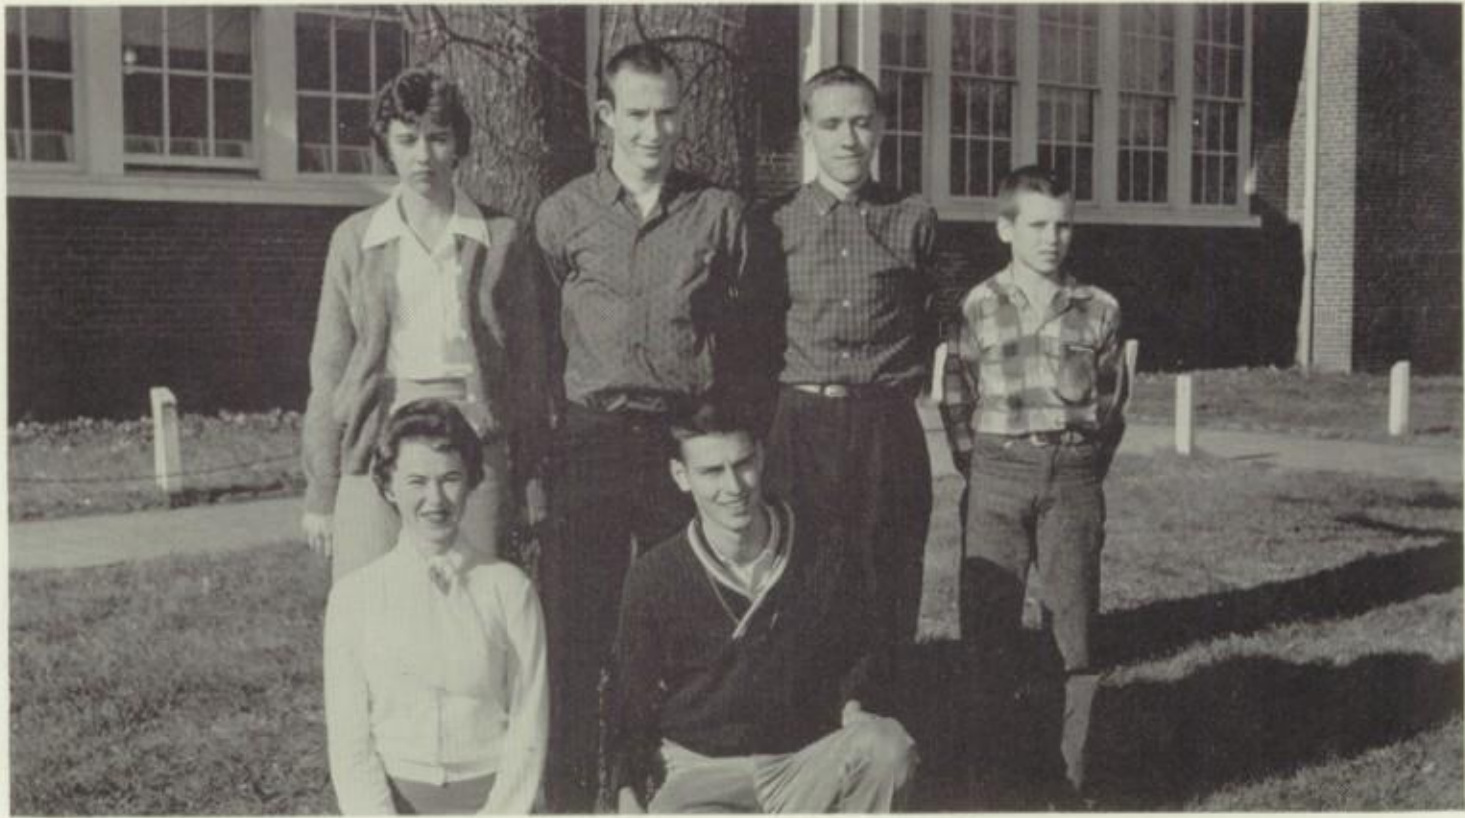

Having returned to Washington and remembering the talks with lots of our classmates and the good times we had talking with each other, we find that J. A. Midkiff, after having a shop in Florida has learned a new hair cutting style.

We still remember the good times we had at dear old Woolwine High and the night we walked down the isle with tears in our eyes, diploma in hand, saying good-by from the Seniors of 1961.

OUR Ever-Present CHALLENGE

The prosperity and individual freedoms we enjoy today are hard-earned gifts from our forefathers and must never be taken for granted.

Each new generation must stand on its own feet and preserve these freedoms. The freedoms we enjoy through the American Way have a high price and must be earned over and over.

W. Somerset Maugham expresses it this way: "If a nation values anything more than freedom, it will lose its freedom; and the irony of it is that if it is comfort or money that it values more, it will lose that, too."
